Gray—Seymour.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Seymour, in Park Avenue, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening their daughter, Miss Alice Lawrence Seymour, and Leslie Jackson Gray, of Pittsburg, were married by Rev. Edwin A. White, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a gown of crepe de chine, trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mrs. Frederick G. Benson, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore embroidered muile. She carried a bouquet of roses. James Gray, of New York, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man and Frederick G. Benson, of this place, and Charles Vogt, of Cleveland, were the ushers. A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will make their home in Pittsburg.

Baptist Outing.

The Sunday-school of the First Baptist Church of this town, the Prospect Street Baptist Church of East Orange, and the West Orange Baptist Church will go on their annual combined excursion to Midland Beach next Thursday. The train will leave the Erie station at Walnut Street at 8:15 o'clock A M., and Prospect Street station 8:17.

A Serious Dilemma.

A serious effect of the distressing heat Thursday night was the narrow escape from a beer famine. One saloon sold out its beer supply entirely and other saloons were on a very narrow margin when closing time arrived. The sudden precipitation of extremely hot weather caught some of the saloon keepers short in their supply. There is need of an improved weather signal service in order that more timely advance notice can be given of the course of hot waves.

The sale of properties for unpaid taxes for 1901 is advertised in this issue of THE CITIZEN.
